

Haiti Fruit Stand

Thank you to all who supported our lunch time fruit sale. We were able to raise four hundred dollars. The money we collected will be sent to Partners in Health, an organization which provides medical services to a large population in the central region of Haiti. This group has also supported education by establishing fifteen schools throughout this area. We are especially grateful to the Kindergarten and first grade parents who helped with the fruit stand.